Use daily life to make connections!

Nicki gained 2 Realtor meetings via this 1 post...best part, they asked her!

How Did She Make New Connections?

- Friend requested Realtors she didn't currently do business with, but wanted to-as I've suggested
- Used everyday life scenario to make connections through something both Realtors have in common w/ her-Hockey (the 'ole get the foot in the door) 📌
- Used an eye-catching photo to peak interest from her daily life....she let it do the work for her with little time put into making this post
- Was responsive/interacted with her post
- Was authentic....kept it real with her status text and life

BONUS POINTS: Nicki remembered to add a call-to-action, tagged her Mortgage Associate and 'checked-in' to her business page!
